

Release of Liability

In consideration of being permitted to participate in Ann Hancock's Basketball Camps, I do waive and release forever any and all rights for claims and damages I may have against Wingate University, its governing board, officers, agents, employees, and COACH HANCOCK, from and against any and all liability for any harm, injury, damage, claims, demands, actions, costs, and expenses of any nature which I may have or which may hereafter accrue to me, arising out of or related to any loss, damage, or personal injury, that may be sustained by me or by any property belonging to me while I am in, on, upon, or in transit to or from the premises where this Camp, or any adjunct to this Camp, occurs or is being conducted.

I accept, understand, and assume there is risk of injury in this Camp, due to the physical nature of the sport, including, but not limited to, fall, contact with other participants, and injury by thrown or batted balls. I agree to follow all instructions and to wear all necessary, recommended, and appropriate protective gear and equipment. I understand this Camp is neither administered nor sponsored by the University and that COACH HANCOCK is providing this instruction or camp outside the scope of her employment with the University. I agree to release, hold harmless, and indemnify the University, its governing board, officers, employees, agents, and COACH HANCOCK from any and all claims and liability arising out of the Camp.

Medical and Surgical Authorization

I hereby authorize and give my consent to the health care providers to perform upon or administer to (camper name) _____ _____ any reasonable, necessary surgical or medical treatment. I also give permission to administer any anesthetic that may be necessary or advisable during the medical or surgical procedures. This authorization is intended to cover emergency treatment, immunizations, injections, and minor operations and procedures. In the case of psychiatric and/or psychological emergencies involving psychological treatment, parental authorization for treatment beyond that responsive to the emergency will be sought.

I understand that the Ann Hancock's Basketball Camps does not offer an excess insurance for injuries sustained as a result of camp participation. I authorize my insurance company to pay benefits to the healthcare providers that the Sports Camp employees send my daughter to for evaluation and treatment. I authorize the disclosure of medical information to my insurance company for the purpose of a claim. This permission is good only while the student is attending Ann Hancock's Basketball Camps and only until the student has attained his/her 18th birthday.

Wingate University Elite Showcase Details

Any female who is a rising 9th-12th grader may attend. The Elite Showcase is an intense camp designed for the serious-minded and highly skilled player. This camp is focused on taking a player's skills to the next level. Drills and instruction are developed for players who want to play at the collegiate level. Drills and games provide a high intensity setting with personalized instruction. Wingate University coaches and players will work with campers on an individual basis.

Prior experience as a varsity starter is recommended but not required. Enrollment is limited to maximize the individual attention given to each camper. Players will have the opportunity to develop talents in drills as well as demonstrate newly learned skills against other players in game competition throughout the day. The camp will take place in beautiful Cuddy Arena and the McGee Activity Center on the campus of Wingate University. Athletic training staff will be on site. All attending campers will receive a T-shirt. Lunch will not be provided.

Sunday, August 6

12-5:30 pm

- Skill development instruction that is designed specifically for outstanding high school players with the potential and desire to play basketball at the next level.
- Drill and game competition against similar grade and skill level players to ensure all campers can be properly evaluated.
- Competitive five-on-five games allowing players to compete with other top players their age.
